

Duke, Daphne

From: PSC_Contact
Sent: Tuesday, April 5, 2022 3:11 PM
To: Cody Sossamon
Cc: PSC_Contact; Bateman, Andrew; Hall, Roger; Grube-Lybarker, Carri
Subject: RE: [External] notice of public hearing

Thank you Mr. Sossamon.

Hope H. Adams
 Administrative Coordinator
 Public Service Commission of South Carolina hope.adams@psc.sc.gov

-----Original Message-----

From: Cody Sossamon
Sent: Tuesday, April 5, 2022 2:54 PM
To: PSC_Contact <Contact@psc.sc.gov>
Subject: Re: [External] notice of public hearing

THE DOCKET # IS 2022-4-G

I was mainly alerting you to the fact that the legal notice published cannot be considered as adhering to the law. It was not published in a newspaper. More like a newsletter that is emailed. No website or archives. It is not printed. Thanks.

On 4/5/22 2:18 PM, PSC_Contact wrote:

> Good afternoon Mr. Sossamon.

>

> Thank you for your correspondence. In order for your correspondence to be filed to the appropriate case on the Commission's Docket Management System, please provide the Docket Number that is included on the Revised Notice and Public Hearing for which you reference in your E-Mail.

> Thank you, Mr. Sossamon.

>

> Respectfully,

>

> Hope H. Adams

> Administrative Coordinator

> Public Service Commission of South Carolina hope.adams@psc.sc.gov

>

> -----Original Message-----

> From: Cody Sossamon
 > Sent: Tuesday, April 5, 2022 1:48 PM
 > To: PSC_Contact <contact@psc.sc.gov>
 > Subject: [External] notice of public hearing

>

> YOU RECENTLY RAN AN AD in the Cherokee Chronicle about a revised notice and public hearing concerning the PSC. This media outlet is NOT A PRINTED NEWSPAPER, has no website and no publicly accessible archives.

> It is NOT recognized by state agencies as a legitimate vehicle to publish legal ads/public notices. I am the publisher of The Gaffney Ledger, which is the newspaper of record for Cherokee County. I will be protesting the legitimacy of the hearing.

- > Cody Sossamon
- > Publisher, The Gaffney Ledger
- >
- > see the attached SCDOR list of approved newspaper for legal notices
- >